

Thankful

NOVEMBER

FAMILY PROJECT

Although we should be grateful and thankful the whole year, for some families, November is a special month to show you thankful they are. For this month's family project, we would like for you to create a collage of pictures of things that you are thankful for and put them on the attached feather. Be creative and have fun! Please return this project by November 18th or before.

Thank You,
Management

