

Thankful

NOVEMBER

FAMILY PROJECT

Although we should be grateful and thankful the whole year, for some families, November is a special month to show you thankful they are. For this month's family project, I would like for you to create a collage of pictures of things that you are thankful for. Be creative and have fun! Please return this project by November 20th or before.

Thank You,
Management